

Gender Inclusion Policy

Circle Program values diversity and inclusion and welcomes a full range of gender diverse individuals. Circle Program will address gender identity and gender expression questions and issues on an individual, case-by-case basis. The entire Circle family, including all parents, campers, staff, mentors, board members and donors, will be treated with the same care, compassion, and concern for their privacy and dignity without discrimination or prejudice.

Approved 3.16.20